Top 10 things to do and buy this month.

Island Michael Kors Bermuda Spray (£41.44; 08700 342 566) is an exotic fragrance inspired by the exotic island. Comprising of vibrant freesia, native hibiscus and notes of pink peony and orange, it's a blooming marvellous holiday scent.

As the saying goes, "one person's trash is another person's treasure", which is the case with the recycled jewellery collection from www.hannahzakari.co.uk. Our favourite is this zebra design for £59.

Ever struggled with hauling your luggage to the airport? Well, the ingenious Live Luggage new Hybrid PA Series Bag (£295; www.liveluggage.com) is power assisted with nano wheel technology to take the strain out of travelling.

This Heidi Mottram eel-skin clutch (from £236; www.heidimottram.co.uk) is pure opulence. We really "heart" it!

Retro watches are on trend, and this goodie from Storm (£79.99; www.stormwatches.com) is real wrist candy.

Ruki Garuba designs are this year's summer essentials to create the tribal trend authentically. Celebrity clients include Kelly Rowland. You will love this dress at only £35 (www.rukigaruba.com).

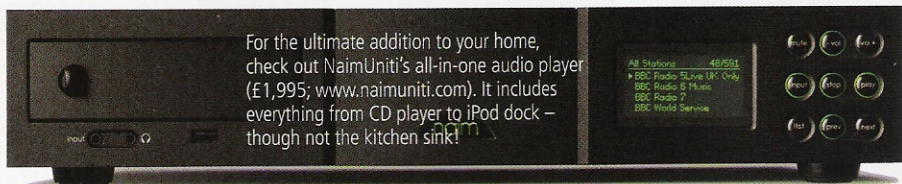

Check out Nokia Skate Almighty (<http://skate.nokiamusic.co.uk>), a series of events running 6–9 August, when member of the public can skate and watch performances by acts including Little Boots. What a great way to enjoy summer in the city!

We adore these batik pumps by Ohema Ohene (£35; <http://shop.ohemaohene.com>) – a superfly addition to any wardrobe!

Fab nail brand M2M DamoreJon has a wonderful range of colours that will have your fingers and toes twinkling this summer (£12; www.m2mdamorejon.com).

For the ultimate addition to your home, check out Naim Uniti's all-in-one audio player (£1,995; www.naimuniti.com). It includes everything from CD player to iPod dock – though not the kitchen sink!
